CELEBRATIONS!

At the end of both morning worship services today we will go into a brief business session for the purpose of hearing from the Search Committee for Minister to Music and Youth. As I noted last Sunday, the Search Committee is presenting to the congregation in view of a call the name of Angela Blizzard to fill this position. Angela has been serving as the youth minister and interim minister of music since April, and I know that you join me in affirming her call to become our permanent full time minister of music and youth. Again, we want to give thanks to this committee of May Kay Smith, chair, Jeanne Easom, Harold McAbee, Cindy Ortiz, and Kent Russell.

Personnel Chair Chuck Whitehead will also bring a recommendation that we hire Brianna Pylant as our music and youth intern. Brianna served us so ably this past summer as our CBF ministerial intern, and she will now be working in the dual areas of music and youth to help lighten Angela's load. The church has often had a music and youth intern in the past – indeed, Angela filled this position years ago when she first came to Vineville Baptist. This music and youth intern position would allow Brianna to work up to 20 hours a week, at an hourly wage of $10 an hour. However, because Brianna is presently engaged in the arduous task of student teaching, her hours of service to the church this fall will be limited. She hopes to work between 6 and 8 hours a week, depending upon her schedule and when Angela most needs her. Once Brianna completes her student teaching in December, she will be available to work more hours at the church.

We celebrate this morning the calling of Angela and Brianna. We also welcome Brianna as our newest member, since she joined the church by transfer of letter last Sunday. We will hold a short reception for Angela and Brianna next Sunday in the guest reception room, following our 10:45 communion service, when we will present new members.

Incidentally, next Sunday is World Communion Sunday, and churches all over the world will be observing communion on this day. Angela had the fabulous idea of asking people to read Scripture related to communion in a variety of languages and we have had several folks step forward to volunteer. So be sure to be here next Sunday when we will “speak in tongues” during the 10:45 am communion service.

Speaking of communion, the church council voted last Sunday to restore communion to the 8:30 am service. Some time prior, the church council had voted to combine services on communion Sunday, but several of the regular early service attenders have lobbied to resume observing communion during the early service. The Church Council recognized that there are a variety of special occasions when will we combine the morning services, particularly during the Thanksgiving and Christmas season. But this change will allow six more Sundays each year when will hold both 8:30 am and 10:45 am worship services.

Special thanks to various groups who have fulfilled extra duties this week, including the Vineville Baptist Golf Tournament committee and the group that provided a Friday lunch for Ethlyn Banks and her family in the wake of her daughter's death.

Thanks also to all the participants in the Parenting Covenant Group. Attendance has been fabulous and Melissa is looking forward to one more week of convening the group this Wednesday at 6:15- 7:15 pm. They may also meet one Wednesday in October so that Barbara Jones can canvas the parents, particularly the parents of children, as to what they would find most helpful in crafting a ministry to children. Parents of children are encouraged to attend, even if they haven't been able to attend the parenting series.

A word from your pastor,
Dr. Richard Kremer
